I am pleased to be starting my 2 year term as SCAL President. We look forward to an active art season with new opportunities to paint, exhibit and sell your art work. Get ready for our 38th Annual SCAL Juried Art Council at Big Arts to be held again in December. We will also host 3 workshops this year: A watercolor workshop taught by Steve Rogers in December and two workshops taught by local artist, Neil Walling, in February and March. The speaker roster is filled with interesting demos and talks. I sincerely thank the many SCAL members who have volunteered to work with the Art League and organize events. Our membership year begins November 1st. Our expenses for the use of the Community House and for taxes have gone up so please pay your dues soon. Invite your friends to join and enjoy our activities.
