Happy New Year to all, and a welcome back to all snowbirds. We hope you are ready to start a busy four months of shows, activities and workshops.

MEETINGS FOR JANUARY AND FEBRUARY at the

Sanibel Community House

1:00 PM social, meeting starts at 1:30PM

January 19
John Terelak

February 16
Martha Graham

John Charles Terelak, one of America's finest living impressionists, hails from Massachusetts and is past President of The New England Watercolor Society. He works in oil, pastel and watercolor. In his demo, John will finish three paintings using his glazing technique.

Martha Graham, will be doing a power point presentation on Books As Art. "I have come to recognize that my work is very illustrative in that it projects an action or moment in time in a lighthearted, whimsical way. Hand made books have been an Art Form for centuries."

Green Bags from Bailey's: Pat Baker will be handing out the green bags to be painted on one side at the January meeting. This is a fund raiser for FISH. Instructions will be provided and these must be returned at the February Meeting. Starting a month earlier will give us more exposure at Bailey's.
